Stefano, Bologna (Italie). Adresse pendant la Conférence : 16 Rue Pré-du-Marché, Lausanne, chez M. Aubert. Né en Corse (Bastia), où son pére était pasteur et originaire des Vallées Vaudoises du Piémont. Sa mère est huguenote. C'est à Torre Pellice (Italie) où il a passé son enfance jusqu'à quinze ans, dans le presbytère de l'Eglise Baptiste. A fait en Suisse et en Italie ses études classiques, et à Rome ses trois années de théologie à la Faculté de l'Ecole Théologique Baptiste sous la direction du Docteur D. G. Whittnighill. C'est en Italie que j'ai débuté dans le ministère à Cousandolo (Ferrare,) milieu révolutionnaire, où il y a aujourd'hui une Eglise constituée. Pendant près de quatorze ans, j'ai été pasteur dans le Nord et dans le Midi de l'Italie, occupant différents postes. Survint la guerre où il fallut changer bien des choses. Après cette parenthèse, j'ai accepté une offre de l'Eglise Evangélique italienne qui avait besoin d'un pasteur à Bologne et c'est là où je suis depuis quatre ans et que je demande à Dieu de continuer à nous bénir comme il l'a fait jusqu'à aujourd'hui. L'Eglise Evangélique italienne est la seule en Italie que je ne crains pas de désigner ainsi, et silencieusement elle accomplit la tâche que Dieu lui a confiée, en basant sur l'italianité et l'évangile son action religieuse et nationale.
